

Calvin Gibbs, Jr., DTM3x

Calvin Gibbs, Jr., DTM3x, is an Author, Keynote Speaker, Presenter/Trainer, Podcast Host/Founder of Born 2 Speak 2 You, LLC.

Calvin has been a dedicated and influential member of Toastmasters International for 12 years. Throughout his journey, he has served as a leader in both District 103 and District 30, holding a Club Officer role every year.

As one of the Preferred Trainers in D103, Calvin has demonstrated his expertise and passion for development, earning the prestigious Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM) award three times—a testament to his commitment to excellence and growth. Beyond his official roles, he has inspired countless others through his leadership, service, and mentorship.

Educational Workshop Session

“We’re Engaged: No Ring, Just Leadership Bling”

Learning and discussing the three types of engagement: Self-engagement, Team engagement, and Community engagement—what each looks like, and how they can benefit both the member and the club. Engagement is the heartbeat of exceptional leadership. It builds trust, fuels action and inspires lasting impact. When leaders engage fully with vision, teams, and purpose, they transform challenges into growth and ideas into legacies. True leadership isn’t about power; it’s about connection, empowerment, and leaving a meaningful mark.

What Are Three Powerful Takeaways from This Educational Session?

1. To fully engage themselves
2. To fully engage in their teams
3. To fully engage the community...it will take action

There is no engagement without action!!!