

Dushun Mosley, DTM2x

Dushun Mosley has been a dedicated Toastmaster for 13 years, during which he has served in numerous leadership roles, including Vice President Membership (VPM), Vice President Education (VPE), President, and Secretary of Wrightwood-Ashburn Overcomers (WAO) club. He is also an active member of Bold Literary Talkers and Victorious Voices.

Dushun's contributions to Toastmasters extend beyond the club level. He has served as a Club Coach, Pathways Guru, Club Ambassador, and Area Director—twice. Notably, he was the first Logistics Manager for District 103 and has held the roles of Club Alignment Chair, South (S) Division Director, and Distinguished District 103 Club Growth Director (2022-2023).

Outside of Toastmasters, Dushun Mosley, DTM, is a multifaceted professional. He is the owner of Mosley Retreat, a family-owned retreat center in Michigan, and the President of Steller Project Management. Additionally, he is an accomplished percussionist who has toured 10 countries and recorded as a professional artist. Dushun's passion for leadership, education, and music reflects his commitment to excellence and lifelong learning.
