Executive Speech Coach

Global Communication Educator

Fursey Gotuaco is a globally respected Executive Speech Coach, TEDx Speaker Coach, and World Championship of Public Speaking Finalist, renowned for transforming speakers into confident, compelling, and commanding communicators.

With over 30 years of experience in speech, theatre, performance, and leadership communication, Fursey has coached speakers at every level — from aspiring Toastmasters and contest champions to corporate executives, TEDx presenters, investors, and media professionals. His coaching blends strategic message development, powerful storytelling, purposeful body language, and magnetic stage presence, equipping speakers with tools that deliver real-world impact and measurable confidence.

A six-time District Champion across multiple Toastmasters districts, Fursey has competed at the highest levels of the World Championship of Public Speaking, earning Finalist honors in 2022 and 2024, and reaching the Semifinals in 2020, 2022, and 2024. In recognition of his excellence, leadership, and service, he was named Toastmaster of the Year (2020).

Beyond the Toastmasters platform, Fursey is an internationally sought-after educator who has delivered training, coaching, and keynote programs across North America, Asia, Europe, Australia, and Africa, helping professionals elevate their influence, clarity, and executive presence. He currently serves as a Principal at Hangzhou International School in China, where he continues shaping future leaders through communication excellence.
