

Tracy Baker, DTM

*Mentor, Writer, Corporate Trainer,
Life Coach, & Educator
D40 District Director
(2025-2026)*

DTM Tracy Baker is District 40 Director. He uses his God-given talents to move, motivate and mellow people who are stuck in “neutral” on their drive down the highway of life. His passion is pushing people past their potential by having them tap into their spirit, mind and body using the harmonies and melodies of their soul. As a lifelong leader, he uses his platform to inspire himself and those around him to rise to higher heights.

He runs a computer hardware refurbishing operation in hometown Dayton, Ohio utilizing skills learned as a 20-year United States Air Force Information Technology officer with various leadership posts around the world. As a combat veteran, DTM Baker deployed numerous times to Afghanistan, Iraq, Turkey, South Korea, Saudi Arabia and Qatar to fight terrorism in support of critical national defense campaigns.

DTM Baker holds 4 college degrees and is a mentor, writer, corporate trainer, life coach, educator, stand-up comedian and video director. He has been a member of Toastmasters, International since 1995 and has received the highest educational award, Distinguished Toastmaster (DTM), six times.
